

HUMAN RIGHTS

We consider human rights as the inherent rights of any person, regardless of nationality, gender or ethnic, religious or other origin. Therefore, we reject any kind of child exploitation and the sexual tourism, and we defend and promote equality of opportunities between men and women.

GOOD GOVERNANCE

Tarannà works with ethical and responsible companies, so all of our suppliers must be placed within guidelines that we consider fundamental:

- Ethical companies in the destination, which go beyond what the laws dictate
- Companies with a three-way balance: economic, social and environmental.
- Companies that reports its values and good practices to the team, as well as outsourced external staff: drivers, guides and others.
- Companies that offer decent work for their employees.
- Legally constituted companies, having the payments up to date and with local insurance.
- Companies subcontracting local services, with parameters of quality, profitability and sustainability.

TARANNÀ SAYS NO TO

Tarannà considers it imperative that companies that work with us are committed to:

- NO TO CORRUPTION
- NO TO SEX TOURISM
- NO TO ANY KIND OF CHILD EXPLOITATION OR OF ANY OTHER KIND
- NO TO THE WILD ANIMAL OUTLOOK IN CAUTIVITY

TARANNÀ SAYS YES TO

Our mission as a company is to offer our clients travel and services based on:

- Extraordinary routes, with quality services, tested and revised.
- Innovation as a sing of Tarannà.
- The safety of our travellers during the trip and the immediate attention of any possible incidents or unforeseen.
- The protection of the environment, oceans, seas and terrestrial ecosystems, as well as flora and fauna.
- The promotion of the local economy, understanding that the benefits of tourism have to be reversed in the local population, so as to promote their development and quality of life.
- Suppliers aligned with our philosophy and values.

For all this we consider it necessary for our suppliers to sign our
TARANNÀ COMMITMENT AND VALUES
